VENDOR CONTRACT

— 2023 IMPERIAL VALLEY TACO FESTIVAL
MAY 05, 2023 - MAIN ST. & PLAZA PARK, BRAWLEY

- _____ 1. The Taco Festival Committee reserves the right to accept and reject vendor applications, or portions of said application. All entries will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis giving our Chamber members priority registration.
- _____ 2. Each Vendor must provide their own tables and displays.
- _____ 3. Each Vendor must have their own fire extinguisher and hand washing station before the start of the event. (Event starts at 6pm)
- _____ 4. No selling or setting up on sidewalk or grassy area behind assigned booth space. No grills, ice chests or chairs outside booth space. Any items outside of booth space will be instructed to be removed.
- _____ 5. All cars must be cleared from event grounds 1 hour before event begins. No cars allowed to drive on event grounds during event.
- _____ 6. All vendors must leave area clean after event. Clean up does not start until event end time. No early clean up, as this takes away from the event experience. No dumping ice, oil, grease or soapy water on sidewalk or grassy area behind booth space.
- _____ 7. Vendors cooking with oil are required to place a tarp under the cooking area.
- _____ 8. ONLY WHISPER GENERATORS WILL BE ALLOWED. Vendors with loud generators will be instructed to turn them off and will also be asked to shut down their booth.
- _____ 9. Food vendors may only sell food items approved by The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Brawley. No other items may be sold, raffled or given away for donations without prior approval from The Chamber. The Chamber may limit the number of food vendors. All food vendors must provide the necessary health permits and liability insurance.
- _____ 10. Tacos can only be sold by Contestants, NO EXCEPTIONS. Taco vendors not participating as contestants will be asked to shut down and will lose their entry fee and deposit.
- _____ 11. Merchandise vendors may only sell items approved by The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Brawley. No other items, other than those approved by The Chamber, may be sold, raffled or given away without prior consent from The Chamber. The Chamber may limit the number of merchandise vendors. NO SILLY STRING, confetti or similar products may be sold.
- _____ 12. Vendors are not allowed to sell before 6pm. (Set up time for contestants is 1pm-5pm)
- _____ 13. Insurance is required for all events. NO EXCEPTIONS. If you choose to provide your own insurance The Brawley Chamber of Commerce must be listed as additionally insured with $1,000,000 coverage.
- _____ 14. All applications must be completed and returned to the Chamber by Friday April 14th, 2023. If approved, late applications are subject to a $100.00 late fee. INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
- _____ 15. The Chamber will not be responsible or reimburse any fees if any vendor/booth is asked to shut down by the ICPHD or any other entity.
- _____ 16. NO REFUNDS. The Chamber of Commerce will not refund any fees if Vendor does not show up to the event on time or if vendor does not show up at all.

Any violation/s of these rules will result in any of the following:

- a) Forfeit of the $50.00 deposit. b) May be asked to shut down and may be permanently banned from participating in any future Brawley Chamber events.

By signing this contract you commit to follow these rules and accept the Taco Festival's Committee's decisions and consequences for not complying with them.
